

SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

WHAT STUDENTS NEED TO KNOW

Obtaining Information, Assistance and Support; Reporting Options

If you have experienced sexual or gender-based violence, there are a number of ways to report the incident and multiple channels for obtaining information, assistance and support to ensure your health and safety, both physical and emotional. This Infographic provides an overview of your options. Detailed information can be found on the Title IX Office Website (eocr.virginia.edu/title-ix) and in the Resource Guide for Students (<http://eocr.virginia.edu/appendixc>).

The term “sexual and gender-based violence” is used here as an umbrella term to refer to all “Prohibited Conduct,” as defined in the University’s Policy on Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment and Other Forms of Interpersonal Violence (the “Sexual Misconduct Policy”). Prohibited Conduct includes Quid Pro Quo Harassment, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual and/or Gender-Based Hostile Environment Harassment, Non-Consensual Sexual Contact and Intercourse, Sexual Exploitation, Intimate Partner Violence, Stalking, Complicity, and Retaliation. Detailed definitions of these and other key terms, including “Affirmative Consent” and “Incapacitation” are set forth in the Sexual Misconduct Policy: <http://uvapolicy.virginia.edu/policy/HRM-041>

IMMEDIATELY AFTER INCIDENT

Reporting the Incident

You are strongly encouraged to report sexual and gender-based violence to the police.

Report to any police officer, in person, or by calling one of the numbers to the right. If you seek medical attention at the UVA Emergency Department (see below), you may ask to make a police report at the hospital. Reporting to police will not affect your ability to pursue resolution through the University process (see next page). The University’s process is independent of the criminal process.

HOW TO CONTACT THE POLICE

Emergency: 911

Non-emergency:

- Albemarle County Police: (434) 977-9041
- City of Charlottesville Police: (434) 970-3280
- University Police: (434) 924-7166

Seeking Emergency Medical Attention

You are strongly encouraged to seek medical attention.

You may obtain medical attention at any facility. However, the UVA Hospital Emergency Department and UVA Student Health are the only local healthcare facilities with nurses (called “SANE nurses”) who are specially trained to perform a forensic sexual assault examination that preserves evidence within the first 120 hours after an assault. These include assessment for injuries, as well as prevention of sexually-transmitted infections and pregnancy. More information about the forensic exam can be found in the Resource Guide for Students (<http://eocr.virginia.edu/appendixc>) and on the Title IX Website. Students are not required to report an incident to law enforcement or the University in order to receive medical attention or a forensic exam. Both facilities provide other appropriate medical services whether or not a student chooses collection of forensic evidence.

OTHER INFORMATION, ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT

There are many sources of information, assistance and support at the University and in the community.

Seeking Ongoing Confidential Counseling

At the University, confidential support is available through CAPS (434) 243-5150, the Women's Center (434) 982-2252, and at Student Health (434) 924-5362 (in the departments of Gynecology, General Medicine, and the Student Disability Access Center).

In the Charlottesville Community, confidential support is available through SARA (434) 977-7273 and SHE (434) 293-8509. Detailed contact information and a list of other sources of confidential support is contained on the Title IX Website: eocr.virginia.edu/title-ix

Seeking Remedial and Protective Measures

University Measures: ODOS can work with the Title IX office to arrange for a broad range of Supportive Measures, including (1) a "No-Contact Directive," and (2) appropriate and available academic accommodations, University housing and/or University employment modifications. Information you share with ODOS will be evaluated to assess individual and community safety consistent with UNIVERSITY OBLIGATIONS outlined below.

Supportive measures are available regardless of whether a student pursues a report or investigation under the Title IX Policy. The Resource Guide for Students (<http://eocr.virginia.edu/appendix>) describes such measures in detail. Judicial Protective Orders: Where there is an immediate threat to health or safety, it may also be possible to obtain a judicial protective order. ODOS and/or the University Police can provide information and assistance in filing for a protective order.

WHO TO CONTACT

Office of the Dean of Students ("ODOS") Dean on Call: ODOS provides 24-hour crisis management services.

During regular business hours, call ODOS at (434) 924-7133.

REPORTING OPTIONS

You may report to the police and/or to the University.

You may report to: (1) the police, in which case the Commonwealth's Attorney will decide whether or not to pursue criminal charges, and (2) the University, in which case the University will assess the report and determine the appropriate course of action. You may pursue both or neither of these options. While you may make a report at any time, filing a report immediately after an incident can help to preserve important evidence.

University Report

You may report to the University through its reporting website, Just Report It: www.justreportit.virginia.edu or by contacting the University's Title IX Coordinator, directly at (434) 297-7988 or titleixcoordinator@virginia.edu. You may also contact ODOS Dean on Call after hours.

You may also pursue University resolution under the Sexual Misconduct Policy. The standard of proof under the Sexual Misconduct Policy is a "preponderance of the evidence," and sanctions may include disciplinary action, up to and including suspension or expulsion.

Police Report

You may report to the police directly or you may request assistance from ODOS in reporting to the police. The criminal process is governed by applicable criminal statutes; the standard of proof is "beyond a reasonable doubt," and sanctions may include all applicable criminal penalties.

Anonymous Report

You may report anonymously by contacting a confidential resource or anonymously contacting the Title IX Coordinator or ODOS. However, the University's ability to respond to an anonymous report may be limited.

4

UNIVERSITY OBLIGATIONS

Once a report of Prohibited Conduct is received, the University will conduct an initial assessment, a threat assessment, and take any immediate action that may be necessary to protect the health and safety of individuals and the University community. Depending on the nature and severity of the conduct reported, the University may be required to share all known information, including names, with law enforcement. The University is committed to protecting the safety of the broader University community, which includes reporting crime statistics and, in some cases, issuing incident notifications in accordance with federal law. Most University employees - "Responsible Employees" - are required to report any knowledge of an incident of sexual or gender-based violence or harassment to the University's Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours. Licensed clinical health and mental health care providers are considered confidential resources and will not report Prohibited Conduct to the University's Title IX Coordinator.
